THE PUBLIC IS HEREBY NOTIFIED that the retail clothing and out atting business conducted by the late Oscar H. Berry in his lift time and by the undersigned, his executors, since his death, at the store, Numbers 1017-1019 East Main Street, Richmond, Va., has, including all of its property, assets and good will, been sold, transferred and delivered at the close of business this 28th day of February, 1914 to Thomas H. Starke and Charles T. Norman, who, as partners under the old style of O. H. Berry & Co., and at the same store (which we have leased to them for a term of years), will henceforward conduct said business for their own account and at their sole cost and risk. We bespeak for the new firm the same generous patronage that was so long and so liberally bestowed upon the late Oscar H. Berry.

In connection with the above, we beg to assure the public that the business of the new firm will be conducted upon the same high principles, as heretofore; and that wherever possible its service will be improved, The same buying and producing organization will be continued, and every accommodation and facility accorded our customers heretofore will be cheerfully extended in the future.
